

Skills First Reconnect supports people who may be facing challenges by offering free one-on-one support to help you get back into study, training or work.

Not sure if you're eligible? Contact us and we'll check.

HOW RECONNECT CAN HELP YOU

A Reconnect Coach will talk with you about your situation and what you want to achieve. We can help you set goals, explore options, and support you with enrolment and funding for pre-accredited or accredited training.

WHAT WE CAN SUPPORT YOU WITH

- Setting goals and identifying your strengths
- Working through barriers to study or work
- Building confidence and motivation
- Planning your next steps and referring you to other helpful services
- Connecting you with community supports and building life skills
- Linking you to programs that match your interests and help you build new skills
- Helping you choose a course and training provider, and supporting you through enrolment
- Help with training fees for approved courses (where eligible)

WHO CAN BE REFERRED

Reconnect supports eligible people, including:

- 17-19 years: not in education/training for 6+ months (or working under 8 hrs/week)
- 20-64 years: unemployed/under-employed for 6+ months and not in education/training for 6+ months
- 17-24 years: affected by the justice system and on (or previously on) Youth Justice Orders
- Asylum seekers (17-64 years): with eligible humanitarian/protection/refugee visas or eligible bridging visas
- 17-64 years: current or previous experience with Child Protection / out-of-home care

Referrals welcome from individuals, families, community organisations and services
